Have you ever asked yourself why during the period between 1917 and 1947 hundreds of thousands of Jews throughout the world woke up one morning and decided to leave their homes and go to Palestine?

Palestine lies on the western edge of the continent of Asia between Latitude 30° N. and 33° N., Longitude 34° 30’ E. and 35° 30’ E.

On the North it is bounded by the French Mandated Territories of Syria and Lebanon, on the East by Syria and Trans-Jordan, on the South-west by the Egyptian province of Sinai, on the South-east by the Gulf of Aqaba and on the West by the Mediterranean. The frontier with Syria was laid down by the Anglo-French Convention of the 23rd December, 1920, and its delimitation was ratified in 1923.

Briefly stated, the boundaries are as follows:

North. – From Ras en Naqura on the Mediterranean eastwards to a point west of Qadas, thence in a northerly direction to Metulla, thence east to a point west of Banias.

East. – From Banias in a southerly direction east of Lake Hula to Jisr Banat Ya’pub, thence along a line east of the Jordan and the Lake of Tiberias and on to El Hamme station on the Samakh-Deraa railway line, thence along the centre of the river Yarmuq to its confluence with the Jordan, thence along the centres of the Jordan, the Dead Sea and the Wadi Araba to a point on the Gulf of Aqaba two miles west of the town of Aqaba, thence along the shore of the Gulf of Aqaba to Ras Jaba.

South. – From Ras Jaba in a generally north-westerly direction to the junction of the Neki-Aqaba and Gaza Aqaba Roads, thence to a point west-north-west of Ain Maghara and thence to a point on the Mediterranean coast north-west of Rafa.

West. – The Mediterranean Sea.

The Trust: “Mandate for Palestine”
“The Mandates of the League of Nations have a special status in international law. They are considered to be trusts, indeed ‘sacred trusts.’”

Professor Eugene V. Rostow

The Trustee: Great Britain (Mandatory)
Great Britain was entrusted by the League of Nations with the responsibility to administer the area of Palestine in accordance with the provisions of the articles of the “Mandate for Palestine.”
“When it is asked what is meant by the development of the Jewish National Home in Palestine, it may be answered that it is not the imposition of a Jewish nationality upon the inhabitants of Palestine as a whole, but the further development of the existing Jewish community, with the assistance of Jews in other parts of the world, in order that it may become a centre in which the Jewish people as a whole may take on grounds of religion and race, an interest and a pride. But in order that this community should have the best prospect of free development and provide a full opportunity for the Jewish people to display its capacities, it is essential that it should know that it is in Palestine as of right and not on sufferance.”

Winston Churchill
British Secretary of State for the Colonies
June, 1922
“The Mandatory shall be responsible for placing the country under such political, administrative and economic conditions as will secure the establishment of the Jewish national home, as laid down in the preamble, and the development of self-governing institutions, and also for safeguarding the civil and religious rights of all the inhabitants of Palestine, irrespective of race and religion.”
Political Rights in Palestine were Granted to Jews Only

At no point in the entire document is there any granting of political rights to non-Jewish entities (i.e., Arabs) because political rights to self-determination as a polity for Arabs were guaranteed in other mandates for:

Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, and later Trans-Jordan.
An appropriate Jewish agency shall be recognised as a public body for the purpose of advising and co-operating with the Administration of Palestine in such economic, social and other matters as may affect the establishment of the Jewish national home and the interests of the Jewish population in Palestine, and, subject always to the control of the Administration to assist and take part in the development of the country.
Article 5

The territory of Palestine assigned exclusively for the Jewish National Home

“The Mandatory shall be responsible for seeing that no Palestine territory shall be ceded or leased to, or in any way placed under the control of the Government of any foreign power.”

The United States Government
June 30, 1922, a joint resolution of both Houses of Congress of the United States unanimously endorsed the Balfour Declaration, confirming the irrevocable right of Jews to settle in the area of Palestine – anywhere between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea.
Representative Walter M. Chandler from New York expresses his views upon the Arab question in Palestine:

“(1) That the Arabs shall be permitted to remain in Palestine under Jewish government and domination, and with their civil and religious rights guaranteed to them through the British mandate and under terms of the Balfour declaration.

“(2) That if they will not consent to Jewish government and domination, they shall be required to sell their lands at a just valuation and retire into the Arab territory which has been assigned to them by the League of Nations in the general reconstruction of the countries of the east.

“(3) That if they will not consent to Jewish government and domination, under conditions of right and justice, or to sell their lands at a just valuation and to retire into their own countries, they shall be driven from Palestine by force.”
U.S. Presidents Supported the Establishment of the National Jewish Home in Palestine

President Woodrow Wilson - March 3, 1919
“I am persuaded that the Allied nations, with the fullest concurrence of our own government and people, are agreed that in Palestine shall be laid the foundation of a Jewish Commonwealth.”

President Warren G. Harding - September 21, 1922
Signed the Lodge-Fish joint resolution of approval to establish a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

President Calvin Coolidge - December 3, 1924

President Herbert Hoover – October 29, 1932
On the occasion of your celebration of the 15th Anniversary of the Balfour Declaration, which received the unanimous approval of both houses of Congress by the adoption of the Lodge-Fish Resolution in 1922, I wish to express the hope that the ideal of the establishment of the National Jewish Home in Palestine, as embodied in that Declaration, will continue to prosper for the good of all the people inhabiting the Holy Land.
The Demise of the League of Nations
April 1946

The League of Nations Failed to Secure the Peace
The UN General Assembly convenes its first meeting at the Organization's temporary quarters, in a converted warehouse at Lake Success, Flushing Meadows, New York on November 19, 1946.
The “Mandate for Palestine” Valid to this Day

The Mandate survived the demise of the League of Nations and is valid to this day.

Article 80 of the UN Charter implicitly recognizes the “Mandate for Palestine” of the League of Nations.

“The International Court of Justice (ICJ) has consistently recognized that the Mandate survived the demise of the League of Nations.”

ICJ Advisory Opinion of June 21, 1971
“[A] Strong Jewish delegations ... attended the San Francisco Conference, 25 April – 26 June 1945.

“Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Peter Bergson, Eliahu Elath, Professors Ben-Zion Netanayu and A. S. Yehuda, and Harry Selden were among the Jewish representatives.

“Their mission was to protect the Jewish right of settlement in Palestine under the Mandate against erosion in a world of ambitious states.

“Article 80 was the result of their efforts.”
UN Resolution 181, recommended to partition the remaining 23% of “Jewish Palestine” into a Jewish state and an Arab state. (Not a Palestinian state)

Jews accepted the recommendation.

Palestinian Arabs and their Arab brethren in neighboring countries rejected it, promising to defy its implementation by force.

Resolution 181 lost its validity and relevance.

Palestinians - ‘Peoplehood’ is Based on a Big Lie

Fact: Palestine is a geographical area NOT a nationality.

Fact: Before the Arabs introduced the concept of Stateless Palestinian Peoplehood in the 1960s, no such group existed.

Fact: Palestine was never an independent sovereign Arab state belonging to any people.

Fact: Jerusalem has never served as an Arab capital for the simple reason that there has never been a Palestinian Arab state.

Fact: Arabs have never recognized or established a Palestinian state during the nineteen years prior to the Six-Day War (1948-1967), when the West Bank was under Jordanian control and the Gaza Strip was under Egyptian control.
The Road to Peace can only begin when the “Mandate for Palestine” is recognized and the rights of the Jewish people in the Land of Israel are reaffirmed.
